

Grossmont Bond Captures Decisive Victory

Area voters completed a unanimous Tuesday night reversal when more than 70 per cent of the residents approved a $6 million bond issue for the Grossmont Union High School District.

After learning of the results of the balloting, Dr. John T. Warburton, superintendent of the high school district, announced his recommendation that the governing board hire an architect to begin the construction planning on expansion at Helix and Mt. Miguel high schools. The most serious overcrowding conditions exist at these schools, while seven of the eight district schools are facing enrollments which top capacity.

District voters, in passing the construction bond, reversed action taken in April of this year, when they defeated a $2 million bond placed on the ballot by the governing board. Within five months, the local voters decided to approve a similar bond which is three times bigger than the April issue.

A two-thirds majority was necessary for passage of the measure, with registrar of voters Charles Sexton, reporting passage by 74 per cent of the turnout. Sexton listed the vote totals at 18,594 for passage of the bond and 6,518 opposed to the issue.

The acquisition of federal funds influenced Dr. Warburton on his second recommendation following approval of the bond. Warburton wants the board to begin plans of an addition to Santana High school. If action is taken soon enough, the district can receive matching funds from the federal government. The vocational-technical education facilities will be doubled under the project.

An expansion program at Monte Vista High in Spring Valley will also be among one of the early programs undertaken by the Grossmont District. The move will be taken in an attempt to avoid double sessions at the local school. Granite Hills will be studied along with Monte Vista for expansion purposes. Expansion at Grossmont High and improvement of the library facilities at El Cajon Valley High were also high among the list of projects to be considered immediately.

Only two million of the $6 million approved by the district voters will be available to the governing board the first two years because of bonding restrictions. Because of this, a new high school in the district is being planned for 1971-1972. It will be the ninth in the district.

Dr. Warburton indicated that none of the bonds would be sold until the district is ready to utilize the money on expansion.

A 32 per cent turnout was reported by registrar Sexton. The turnout at the April bond election fell a little short of Tuesday's mark.

Prior to the election, proponents of the school bond put on a massive campaign to inform the voters of the situation which the district faced if the bond failed to gain the required 'yes' vote Tuesday.

The project was spearheaded by the Citizens for High School Bonds and Chairman Al Marshall. The group set up headquarters in El Cajon and began to saturate the area with flyers and leaflets, in an attempt to inform the public of the alternatives faced by the governing board of the local school district.

The DIMMER VIEW

Tyrant on a Parking Lot

Sports fans become aroused when we attack the parking policies at the Chargers games. One vocative gent, via telephone, complained that our diatribes weaken the whole sports supports structure in San Diego.

This guy is ready for a long visit to a happy farm.

It is not our complaint, nor the complaint of others who are outraged by some of the goings-on at the stadium, that weakens the sports structure.

The outrages are several.

So repulsed have some fans become that the coming San Diego city election is going to be affected by stadium antics.

One candidate, an incumbent, does not want his picture shown with any stadium activity. "If voters associate me with the stadium, they'll vote for my opponent," he said.

The Stadium club, which is said to discriminate against Joe Sportsman, is a nasty little repulsor.

The handling of general admission ticket buyers is another.

The traffic situation, one element that now shows some improvement, is another.

Our main gripe is the parking situation. And that is getting worse instead of better.

The idea of paying $2 for parking at a publicly owned facility is ridiculous. Whoever the people are who operate Ace Parking apparently negotiated a pretty good contract to be able to make the $2 charge stand up. If parking is the only income the city can generate to pay off the stadium bonds, then something's wrong with the stadium use contracts.

But parking is not only too expensive, at least one attendant is surly and insolent.

He stood in a driving lane intersection halting traffic Sunday. "You can't go in here," he said. He shrugged his shoulders when we asked which way to go.

With traffic backing up, we motioned him, an Ace Parking attendant, to come to the car.

He shook his head.

"If you want to talk, get out and come over here," he said with his hands on his hips.

This act is provable. It happened to us. Perhaps acts such as this, and similar acts by the hundreds go unreported. For those who have suffered at the hands of public parking tyrants at the stadium, let them know that this item is being communicated directly to at least two councilmen and the mayor.

These lawmakers are too smart to let such actions continue to occur.

And politically, it is too dangerous.

To 'Frame' Your Spouse

Our award for bravery should go to the guy who was driving a new, black car the other day. The car was well-kept and shiny — except for a bashed-in rear fender.

He had painted a white frame around the damage.

Within the frame he had painted "hers."

Cheaper Rubbish Disposal

County big-wigs won't believe us when we tell them the newly imposed dump charge contributes to litter and smog. Many persons burn the refuse they once hauled free to the dump. Now it is not hard to find a sack of trash in almost any weedy area. These are proofs that the system is wrong.

Newest trick is to dump refuse in the trash-holding compounds at supermarkets and superdrugstores. It's convenient, all right. Drop off your trash while picking up the family supply of cigarettes and beer.

Shape Up or Lose Out

There was several millions of dollars worth of architectural brains in town two weeks ago for the 22nd annual convention of the members of the California Council, American Institute of Architects.

In a 400-mile air tour of coastal cities, sponsored by AIA, several renowned architects discussed to members of the press the problems involved in the spreading Southern California "sea of roofs."

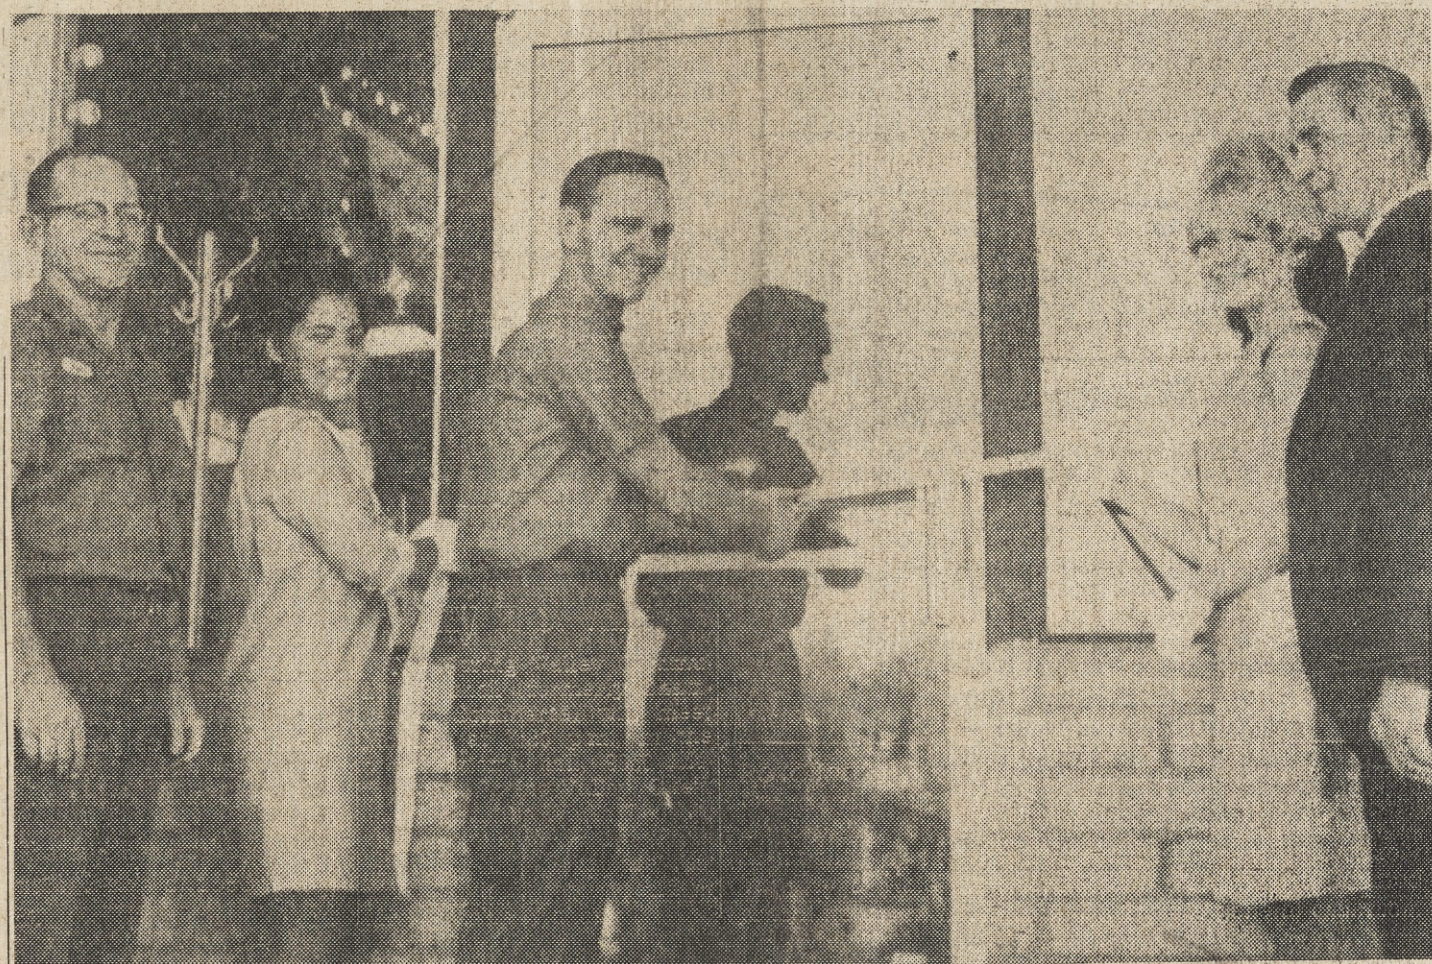

It was said time and time again . . . "it needn't be."

What shouldn't be is that San Diego will be a replica of Los Angeles if plans are not made right now to prevent it.

Five million more people will flock to Southern California during the next 32 years, it was agreed. The populace of the entire Southern California coastal area would "sink of its own weight" beneath the pressure of inadequate planning. Smog control, freeway development, open space parks shortages, and wasteful use of land in one-family dwellings were the major problems.

"We've got to plan up," said one expert from San Francisco. "We can't afford the continuing luxury of single family dwellings. Living areas must become tall circles with a huge shopping center at the hub. These circles must be con-

Hospital Bond Backers Begin Campaign Effort

LA MESA — A vigorous, 6-week citizens campaign to inform every voter in the district concerning Grossmont Hospital's proposed $8 million bond issue got underway from campaign headquarters at 5995 Severin dr.

The bonds, which voters are asked to approve in a special election Nov. 28, would finance a new 300-bed wing.

"We must reach every voter with three key points of information," Ralph Kulk, chairman of Citizens for Grossmont Hospital Bonds, told the hospital board of directors last Wednesday.

He said they are:

1. The ever-increasing need at Grossmont Hospital for the new wing, which would also add expanded emergency, surgery, x-ray, laboratory and dietary facilities.

2. The fact that bonds will not increase present hospital taxes for district property owners.

3. The fact that it will take 3 1/2 years to complete the wing and that any delay would only increase the growing local hospital crisis.

"If we can get our message to the voters, I feel certain the bonds will pass with the two-thirds majority needed," Kulk said.

He said the over-crowded conditions at Grossmont Hospital, the waiting lists for non-emergency surgery, and the heavy emergency load demonstrate clearly how great the need is.

The 216-bed hospital that serves 200,000 area residents could use another 100 beds right now, Kulk said. He said occupancy has been running nearly 10 per cent above normal hospital capacity, with 1,000 patients and 1,100 emergency cases monthly.

"I know some property owners wonder how we will keep taxes in line if they vote for the bonds," Kulk added.

He explained that the average tax rate for the next four years, should the bonds pass, will be the same as the average for the past two years.

"That's how it figures out, according to the best estimates our bond counsel have come up with. After the first four years the rate will be reduced to almost half," Kulk declared.

Concerning construction of the wing, Kulk said it would take 15 months to prepare the complicated plans, secure their approval from various state and local agencies, and let the bids.

Former Miguel Grad State Valedictorian

A group of 129 freshmen, including valedictorians from two local high schools, have been accepted into San Diego State's honors-at-entrance program.

Prior to college entrance, freshmen who have superior high school grades may, on the basis of their college aptitude test scores, be invited to participate in a special advising program.

Students are offered four years of individual counseling, priority during this freshman year in course selection and access to restricted courses that move rapidly from fundamentals to advanced aspects of psychology, mathematics, physics, political science, chemistry and English.

The honors program requires at least 15 semester grades of "A" during the last three senior high school years and a score of at least 91 per cent on an American College Testing Program exam.

Dr. Sidney L. Gulick, dean, arts and sciences, San Diego State, initiated the honors program seven years ago.

"Each student in the program is assigned a faculty adviser. The adviser directs the student in a curriculum that promises to fulfill his potential capability. The success of the program is reflected by the high percentage of students who appear each semester on the 'deans' list," Gulick said.

Valedictorians in the group are: Gwendolyn I. McGarvey from Mt. Miguel High and Jeanette M. Trenti from El Capitlan High.

Three former Monte Vista and three Mt. Miguel students were listed as honor-entrance students. The Monte Vista students are: Vance J. Blaettler, 10511 Del Rio rd., Spring Valley; Kathy Doyle, 10535 Queen ave., La Mesa; and Vaughn Morris, 10337 Elmdale dr., Spring Valley.

From Mt. Miguel the students were: Gwen McGarvey, Gregory Schaeffer, 7960 Palm st., Lemon Grove; and Michael Willhite, 7676 Madison ave., Lemon Grove.

Shakespeare's Macbeth states: "Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player that struts and frets his hours upon the stage, and then is heard no more. It is a tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing." The Christian faith tells us that this need not be true, for as Paul wrote in 2 Corinthians 5:17: "Therefore, if any one is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, behold, the new has come."

S.V. Kiwanis Breakfast Attended by 822 Locals

Reporting on the Oct. 7 "Pancake Festival" of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, it was brought out that in competition in ticket selling, Team "A" sold 269 and Team "B", 271. There were 56 tickets sold at the door (Mt. Miguel High School cafeteria), and a total of 822 sold tickets were reported. No report was given on the amount sold by students of Mt. Miguel High School, but is expected that report will be available in a week or two.

Club president Verne Watts, said the annual scholarship of $50 for a student to Grossmont College, had been awarded to Beverly Bell of Lemon Grove.

Two honored guests were introduced at the Oct. 11 breakfast-meeting of the club: Lt. Governor of Division 31, Vic Root, and Governor-elect, Paul Clay of Alpine. Speaking first, Root said the objective of Kiwanis of Division 31, during his term of office, was membership, and he hoped the new year would see this objective renewed. Paul Clay said he is still in the dark about his forthcoming position, and that he has recruited the efforts of Frank Berger of the Spring Valley club, to help him. Berger was a candidate for Lt. Governor of Division 31, and lost by one vote to Clay.

Guest speaker at the Oct. 11 meeting, was Larry Freeman of the San Diego Union-Tribune, who spoke on "Newspaper Week." He told of various slogans throughout the country, which help keep businesses in operation. He said publishers of the many newspapers in our country have one objective; to keep in business. He said the big city newspapers of today do not have a monopoly on the business, as many of the country publications and the television and radio, cover a lot of the news.

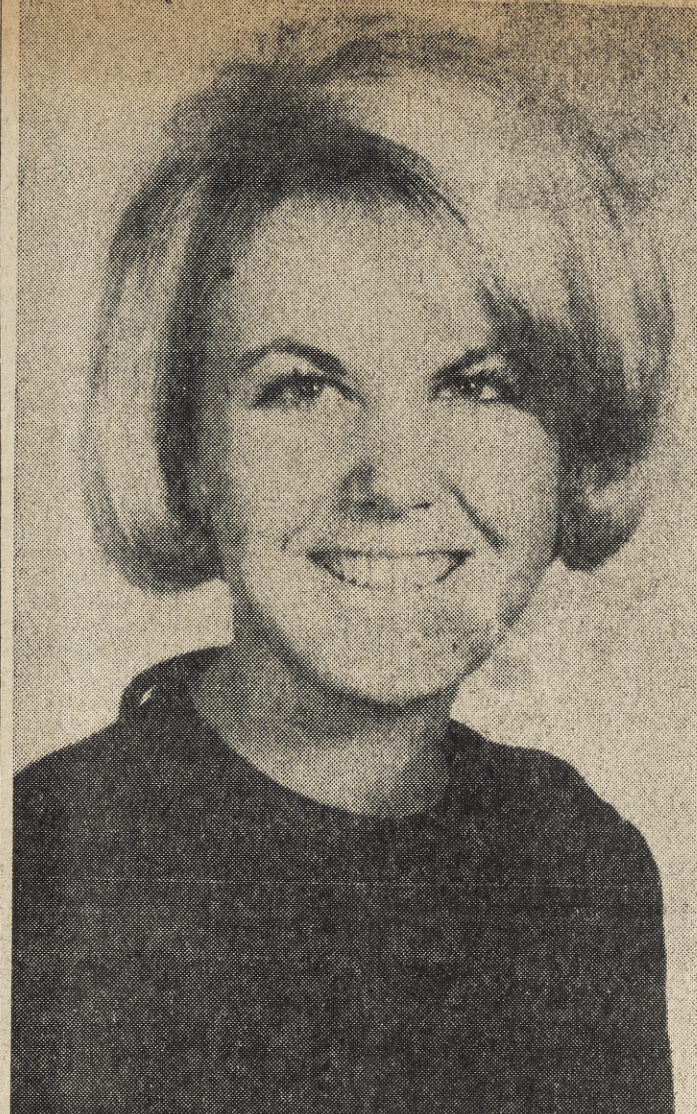

Freeman pointed out that a newspaper depends primarily on ads to keep the business going, with circulation running second. He said the goal of a newspaper and its reporters is to get the facts correct on any event that may take place in its area or across the world. He said a few words about John Zenger, the early American newspaperman, who was thrown into jail after he had written an article in a paper, and how he was released after it was learned he had told the truth. Freeman said the Brown Act of California, has given reporters more freedom at various meetings. But, he pointed out, the Bar Association is considering restrictions on news coverage in pre-trial cases.

Newspapers do other public services besides reporting the news, Freeman said. They help with the fund-raising campaigns and tracking down criminals, to mention two services. He said that crime news has great readability and that it is names that make the news.

"Truth is better than rumor," Freeman stressed.

In closing Larry Freeman quoted a few lines from an editorial, which appeared in "Editor and Publisher":

"A free newspaper must be free to be right and free to be wrong. It must be free to win the respect of its readers and free to be ignored. It must be free to pursue a profit and it must be free to go bankrupt if it fails in its duty of serving the public. That is, indeed, a powerful lot of freedom, but there is no other way to have a free press."

Miss Cindy Hauser

The Dimmer View

needed by adequate freeways. Outside the circles must be open spaces!"

Fanciful dreaming, that.

More realistically, a clutch of architects told us that small, unincorporated communities could help prevent L.A. syndrome — perhaps even better than some cities.

One architect from, of all places, England, said that Lemon Grove and Spring Valley had the planning services available in the county planning department. A plan could be developed through local chambers of commerce, he said. Interested citizens could serve as a guiding committee and a plan would be developed to show what local leaders wanted the community to look like, eventually.

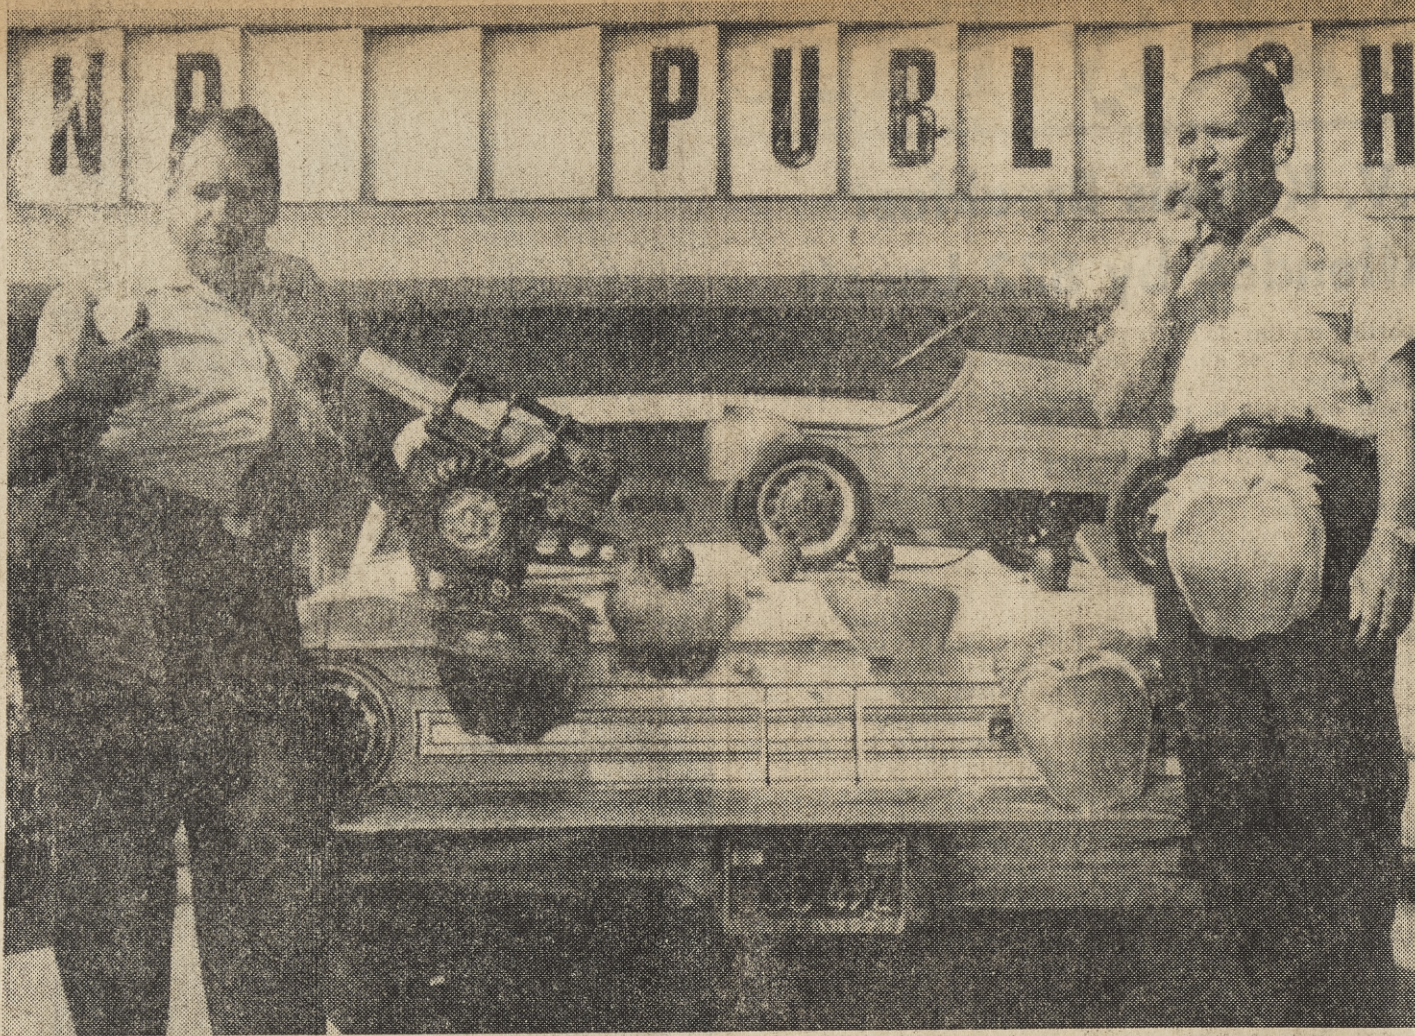

Any plan is better than no plan, was the theory. It would give county government a guide when requests were made through the planning and building departments.

"In a few years you'd see the community take on the character envisioned by today's planners," one man said.

"Equally important," said another, "the community would learn that it had a voice. Too many small areas remain silent because it is thought that no one listens."

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley could start this month to shape themselves up in a manner that would make the residents prouder," he said.

What's more, it would not require another arm of government, nor would it cost the citizens anything. It sounds like a bargain to us.

APPLE A DAY: Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club members Ray Carmody, left, and Sam Pernicano sample the apples which the local organization will be selling next Thursday through Saturday. The club will be selling Washington Delicious apples by the case and fractions of the case, with the proceeds being used to fix toys for underprivileged children. A case of 100 apples will be priced at $8, with club member Paul Reynolds taking orders at his home, 7205 Rosemary Lane, or by phone, 469-4234 and 469-1518.

Recreation Area Vote Dec. 12

The County Board of Supervisors set Dec. 12 as the date for a vote on the annexation of the Highland-Bancroft and Casa de Oro areas to the Spring Valley Park and Recreation Districts.

Fifty per cent protest did not come from either district and the board took action on the election date. Supervisors had agreed to suspend the proceedings and drop the election if a 50 per cent protest was recorded.

The annexation came under protest by residents of the school attendance area of Highlands and Bancroft elementary schools and citizens from the Casa de Oro area.

If approved, a 20-cent per $100 assessed valuation maximum levy is utilized in the district.

NEW RESTAURANT SAVES FAMILIES MONEY

"Lemon Grove, Cal." ... The first unit of the very popular TOPPER'S STEAK-HOUSE chain is opening in this city on Oct. 23, 24 and 25. Featuring good steak at low prices, savings on family dining out has made the Topper's Steakhouses a favorite at meal time dinners across the nation.

KIDS REMEMBERED

DECOR APPEALS

With background music, red leather seats and gold carpeted floors, Topper's have proven that luxury can be combined with low cost eating. Big landscaped parking areas give plenty of room for the family bus.

MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

"We sincerely want to be of service to the community and give people what they want," explain the owners. Even the premium price restaurants have a tough time occasionally, but we cheerfully refund the money to any unhappy customer. "We feel satisfied customers who tell their friends we have a nice place and that they can save money are our best advertisement."

"Eat for less and bank the rest is the motto of the new chain."

The first unit is located at 8035 Broadway in East Lemon Grove, near Spring Valley.

ald Johnson, Al Woods, and Bob Russell, all of the community's Chamber of Commerce. Russell's Plumbing and Paint Supply furnished the paint and tools required for the task which was undertaken last Saturday afternoon.

"The students were given the opportunity through a program called the American Institute for Foreign Study," Miss Moore said. They spent four weeks at the University of Southampton at La Salinas College of Education.

Classes that were offered to them were: Modern Britain, the Age of Shakespeare, English Post-war Literature, the English Novel and Poetry, Romans and Saxons, Medieval and Modern England, Modern Art, Modern England, Modern

Art, and English Architecture. The trip began on July 19 when the students and chaperones spent a few days in London first. They stayed in England until August 22. Side trips were made to Sussex, Stratford-on-Avon, Oxford University, Westminster Abbey, Stonehenge, Scotland, and other places of interest. ### HELP NATURE

GET YOU WELL

"Mother Nature" is infinite—without limit! No wonder doctors often advise patients to get plenty of rest, follow a proper diet and "Nature" may eventually get them well.

T.B. patients are confined to complete bed rest for periods of a year or longer to permit Nature to repair damaged lungs.

Asthmatic patients frequently are told they may "outgrow" it in time—Nature "might" heal it.

Heart patients are sentenced to months of convalescence to allow Nature to "strengthen" and "heal" the heart muscle.

The surgeon sutures the wound or sets the fracture and leaves the "healing" to a "greater force"—Nature.

Who is Nature anyway? We find that while patients have been given this wonderful ray of hope and faith in Nature, they are never told who or what Nature is!

Webster describes "Nature" as, "Sum total of all things in time and space; the entire physical universe; the vital functions, the forces, and activities of the organs. The Power, Force, principle, etc., that seems to regulate this."

Nature is that Innate Intelligent Power or Force that fashioned our physical body in the beginning. But Mother Nature doesn't stop there — She maintains life in our body until death.

She assigned every organ to the economy of the body. The mouth is designed to break down the foods—the stomach to mix and digest the food—the intestines to assimilate and absorb micro-nutrients — the colon absorb liquids and eliminate wastes. It's the heart's job to circulate the blood — the liver to filter the blood, store energy foods and make digestive juices — the kidney's job to void unwanted fluids and impurities, etc. All these functions are muscular activity! All muscular activity requires energy — Life energy! No energy—no muscular function! Nature destined the brain to supply this vital Life energy — and co-ordinates all these functions. The brain controls and transmits its energy through it connecting nerve lines to every crook and cranny of the body—to every cell, muscle and organ.

Webster describes "health" as, "A sound physical condition." All body functions will be "sound" or, "normal" so long as Nature's Life-energy current can flow freely through her nerve system. It stands to reason that sickness can result from interference with normal flow of life-energy through the nerve network.

It follows that in the event of an injury or sickness, to the degree that Nature's transmission lines can be restored—to that degree, health or sound physical function can be restored.

The College Grove Chiropractic Arts Building has files of cases of all sorts of ailments that got well because we were able to restore nerve lines permitting Nature to employ full use of all Her reparative forces.

Chiropractic may be able to locate and remove your nerve irritations too! Investigate! What can you lose except your ill health?

Homecoming Victors

Midgets Triumph Again, 45-6; Assured of Mother Goose Berth

The first annual Homecoming of the Los Toros Pop Warner Football Club was held last Saturday at Mt. Miguel High School Stadium.

Miss Tammy Keyte was crowned Homecoming Queen by the captain of the Midget squad, Misses Carmella Alci and Deana Taylor served as princesses.

Emil Karas of San Diego Charger fame, gave a brief talk and was literally mobbed by the youngsters for autographs.

The Midget Roadrunners beat La Mesa Tartans for their fifth straight win, assuring them of playing in the Mother Goose Bowl. In the first quarter Jim Reese made the first touchdown with Mike Szalay making the extra point and the second six-pointer was by Szalay with Reese making the extra point. Tim Miller made a touchdown in the second quarter. In the third period, Frank Sosa scored with Miller making the extra point. Miller scored two more touchdowns in the third period, and in the fourth, Miller passed to Sosa for another score. The final score was Midgets 45-

La Mesa 6.

The Brahmas (Pee Wee East)—Balboa game was a 7-7 tie at the end of final play, forcing a five minute play-off period. At the end of the play-off, no points had been scored and the game was given to Balboa on the basis of the most first downs in the play-off period.

The Los Toros Longhorn (Pee Wee North) versus San Dieguito game was won by the Longhorns by a 7-0 score. Both the Longhorns and the Brahmas played great games in both offense and defense.

The Midgets are the only team scheduled for play next week and they will be traveling to Grossmont High to play Grossmont, at 1 p.m.

Grossmont Eleven Triumphs, Tackles S.D. City Saturday

With a 22-16 non-league victory over Imperial Valley College behind them, the Grossmont College Griffins jump back into Pacific Southwest Conference play this Saturday as they travel to Balboa Stadium to face the rugged San Diego City College Knights in an 8 p.m. contest.

The Knights, who were idle last Saturday, are 3-1 on the season and will be making their first PSC start. They will also be out to avenge last year's upset loss to the Griffins, City's first in the three year history of the series.

For Grossmont the game will offer a chance to even both their PSC record and their overall won-lost mark. The Griffins, now 2-3 on the season, lost their PSC opener two weeks ago to Palomar, 42-26.

The game with San Diego City College will be an interesting match between three of the USC's top runners in the Knights' Stan Murphy and the Griffins' Bob Stuhler, 305 yards in 52 carries, and Frank Gilbert, 290 yards in 60 carries.

The Knights also possess one of the PSC's top defenses against the passing game. The Griffins boast a solid passing game directed by quarterback Brian Sipe. 50 completions in 105 attempts for 712 yards, and bolstered by receivers Rich Aylward, 13 catches for 176 yards, Lucky Fleming, 12 for 226, and tight end Ralph Baker, 11 for 111 yards.

Gilbert was the big gun in the Griffins' offense Saturday night as Grossmont rallied for their entire 22 points in the fourth quarter to down the upset-minded Arabs. The former Mount Miguel seatback ran through the Arab defenses for 113 yards in 21 carries.

Sipe, who hit on five of 15 for 100 yards in the game (most of which came in the fourth quarter after he struggled through three periods.

Miguel Classes Hold Map-making Contest

Mr. Fred Ryan's 9th grade geography classes at Mount Miguel high school recently competed in a map-making project. Nearly one hundred maps were entered by the three classes.

Students vied for honors in three categories. Maps were judged for accuracy, neatness, and artistry. Students who judged the maps by personal ballot were graded on their judging as well as on their maps.

Awards were given for the best maps in three areas: best all-around, best title, and most artistic. John Serr was selected for having done the best all-around map; Rhonda Gill second best all-around and second best title; Linda Ray, second best in art and third best all-around; and Patty Martin, third in art and third best title.

Maps submitted were physical maps of the world. Students had two days in which to complete the maps.

Local Gridders Lick Wounds, Seek Victory Again Tomorrow

Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista, both pushed around in their last Grossmont League outings, will attempt to reverse the tide tomorrow night with the Matadors testing Santana at Helix High Field and the Monarchs running up against league kingpin Helix in the first game ever under the lights at Monte Vista.

Mt. Miguel, 1-1 in league play following last week's 47-12 loss to El Capitan, will be attempting to get back in the league race and also even its overall season record. The Matadors own a 1-2 mark.

Monte Vista will have a much rougher task in trying to win its initial Grossmont Helix, has triumphed twice in league play and is favored to cop the pennant in the County race.

El Capitan raced to 29 points in the first half and didn't let up in the second by adding 18 more, as they completely manhandled the Mt. Miguel defense.

The lone touchdowns by the locals came on an 81-yard pass play from quarterback Jerry Lowery to tight end Gary Cooper. The score came after four Vacuero touchdowns had already been recorded. The Matadors struck for a third period tally on an 80-yard runback of a pass interception by Mike Tyler.

Except for those two instances the El Cap eleven played flawless football as it attempted to get back into the league race after dropping a rough game to Helix last week.

Monte Vista had to battle the Granite Hills Eagles and the natural elements last Friday in dropping a 19-7 decision to the El Cajon squad. The players were drenched late in the first half when the automatic sprinkler system at Granite Hills came on.

Quarterback Chuck Downing got the Monarchs an early lead in the contest on a 60-yard scoring play to Gordon Rock, but the Monarch attacked stalled in the last three quarters.

Granite Hills pushed across six-pointers in each of the first three periods.

Klein Seeks Third Victory In Powder Puff Competition

With only the Grand Prix to go after this one, Super stock car drivers at Cajon Speedway push with that last great effort for the checkered flag on the banked paved 3/8 mile oval.

Over 70 stock cars are still remaining after 27 weeks of punishment and all will be on hand for the 6:30 p.m. qualifying rounds with the surpreme effort to make a part of the 13 event program.

Special event of the evening will bring three two time winners to the front in the 1967 Powder Puff Grand Prix. Jerry Kallos, San Diego; Mary Ann Klein, Spring Valley and Diane Porter of Paradise Hills will all be looking for number three win in this final race.

The championship point battle stayed about the same as both Vance Butler of La Cresta and Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach failed to finish last week's big 30 lap main event. Russ Bullins third main event win of the year made the two time champion more secure in third place over Bucky Peralta of El Cajon. Only 200 points separate Kimbrell from first place Butler, while about the same divide Bullen and Peralta.

Last week's main event was only .02 hundredths of a second off the track record while fast time missed by only .31 hundredths. The pace of the races show the strain of the last weeks of action with all going for the championship prize money.

Mueller Assumes Familiar Post; Heads Women for Decency Project

Mrs. Marjorie Mueller, absent from the program for a year, took her old job back and is currently trying to improve the Women for Decency segment of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Teresa of Avila, No. 1580.

Mrs. Mueller, who's programs on decency gained state award in 1964 and 1965, vacated the post last year, but has assumed the task of chairman of the drive to improve the moral standards of the youth of the community.

"Our Women for Decency program is geared for the younger children," explained Mrs. Mueller. "The youth of today will be the future citizens of tomorrow and they are the ones who deserve our attention."

Mrs. Mueller will be inspecting business establishments in the Lemon Grove area which are "trending" material. The local Catholic Daughters will present 10 business in the area with Awards of Excellence to the stores which "promote sound mental and emotional health of youth and recognizes that books and magazines are a vital part of the moral climate of the community."

The local Catholic Daughters group, working out of the St. John of the Cross parish in Lemon Grove, has been engaged in the Women for Decency program since September of 1963.

All the projects undertaken by the group are for the benefit of the local people, with many of the programs coming from ideas out of the state association of Catholic Daughters.

"They tried the giving of certificates for good reading material up north and it has worked," stated Mrs. Mueller. "We wrote to the state group and obtained the 10 award from them. If there is a need we can acquire more from the state."

The Women for Decency group spearheaded a drive for youth.

GOOD READING MATERIAL: Marjorie Mueller, Chairman of Women for Decency, Court Teresa of Avila No. 1580, Catholic Daughters of America of Lemon Grove, displays an "Award of Excellence" that will be given to the local stores selling and displaying the reading materials that are free of degrading and harmful content. The award will give the name of the store and the signature of the manager.

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Nouns in Spanish may be either singular or plural. Singular nouns identify only one object as in the word "violeta" (violet). Plural nouns identify two or more objects as in the word "violetas" (violets). A word that modifies a noun is an adjective. An adjective must be in agreement with the noun it modifies. That is to say, if a noun is singular, the adjective modifying it must also be singular. If a noun is plural, the adjective modifying it must also be plural.

If we wish to say "violetas" (violets), it is implied that we refer to more than one violet and we have a plural noun. If we wish to say "pretty violets," we would have to use the plural form of "violeta" and the plural form of "bonita" which would be "violetas bonitas" (pretty violets). One other consideration is the location of the adjective in the phrase. Most frequently the adjective comes after the word it modifies. As in our example, "bonitas" is the word that modifies the word "violetas" and "bonitas" follows "violetas" to make the expression "violetas bonitas."

Today's practice expressions have examples in which the adjectives are in the plural form. See if you can determine which words are adjectives and which are nouns.

Then practice saying the expressions with the automatic recording when you dial 276-2762. There is a pause provided after each word and phrase during which you are invited to say the same word and phrase aloud.

IMPORTANT PHRASES
Say "Son grandes los trenes?" (sohn GRAHN-dehs lohs TREH-nehs) for "Are the trains big?"
Say "Si, los trenes son grandes." (SEE lohs TREH-nehs sohn GRAHN-dehs) for "Yes, the trains are big."

USEFUL PHRASES
Say "Que es la aspirina?" (KEH ehs la ahs-pee-REE-nah) for "What is aspirin?"
Say "La aspirina es una medicina." (lah ahs-pee-REE-nah ehs OON-nah mel-deh-SEE-nah) for "Aspirin is a medicine."

OTHER PHRASES
Say "Son bonitas las violetas?" (sohn boh-NEE-tahs lah vee-oh-LEH-tahs) for "Are the violets pretty?"
Say "Si, son bonitas." (SEE sohn boh-NEE-tahs) for "Yes, they are pretty."

MAIL BAG

Hi Editor:
What would it take to have LEMON GROVE REVIEW mailed to me for another year? It's great getting it but it takes a month getting here by regular mail. I didn't expect the subscription to last this long. I haven't heard anything about it and I thought I better do something. I'd hate to break contact with the living world.

Time's going like hell, my ETS is April '69. I made it to ET last March and now I'm stuck until October '69. We've got it good here but somehow DA's managed to throw all the duds they could grab in to this unit's command section. The guys are a great group and we have a good time off duty.

That's about it, let me know what you can do about the paper. Oh, today I got 24 and 31 August and the quality of the pictures and copy was great! What'd you do?
Yours in war and peace,
